

The goal of peer tutoring is to help students engage their own active learning and critical thinking skills. Tutors will not give away answers, instead they will help students learn how to find the answers on their own!

In some cases, tutors may assist students with academic skills outside course content, such as note-taking skills, textbook reading strategies, or time management.

Peer tutors are available for many courses and subjects, but are NOT guaranteed. If a relevant tutor is not available, students should speak with their instructors for help.

Peer tutoring is typically not offered for course in which supplemental instruction is available. Students in t (n t)t.d-(S) (i).d-(aav) (t)-t weekly appointments with their tutor(s).

Tutoring appointments must be made at least 24 hours in advance. Students who need to cancel an appointment must log into the urs of tutoring per week, per course.
